The 2013 International E-Learning Awards Business Division

Call for Submissions - Due Date Is March 1, 2013

sponsored by
the International E-Learning Association (IELA)

What Are the International E-Learning Awards?

The International E-Learning Awards are given each year for the best work in e-learning, mobile learning, and blended learning.

Who Is Eligible to Enter?

Any organization may enter; any e-learning course or product for use in business or industry may be submitted. While the entry form must be in English, the product may be in any language and will be evaluated by native speakers of the product's language.

How Are the Winners Chosen?

Winning entries are selected by our International Review Committee. Entries are evaluated for a variety of attributes. These include, among others, educational soundness and effectiveness, usability, and overall significance.

How Do I Enter?

Complete the submission form at www.ielassoc.org under the Awards Program tab.

Pay the entry fee of $99 ($79 for IELA members).

When Are Submissions Due?

Submissions are due on March 1, 2013.

When Will the Winners Be Announced?

The winners will be announced on June 14th, 2013, at the ICELW conference (www.icelw.org) in New York. You do not need to be in New York in order to win.
