

International E-Learning Awards, Business and Industry Division 2016 Winners

<http://dx.doi.org/10.3991/ijac.v9i2.6013>

The International E-Learning Awards recognize the best uses of technology to improve learning and job performance within companies or through individual professional development.

The 2016 award winners were announced at our Awards Ceremony in New York at the ICELW Conference on June 17, 2016. The award winners are as follows:

Winner, E-Learning: "Introduction to Master Data Management," Cardinal Health, USA.
Representative: Joe Suarez.

Winner, Mobile Learning: "Managing Complaints," Vital Learning, USA. Representative: Todd Macey.

Winner, Blended Learning: "edubreak®SPORTCAMPUS," Ghostthinker GmbH, Germany.
Representative: Rebecca Gebler.

Runner-Up, E-Learning: "VOXY," Voxy, USA, Representative: Caroline Hartmann.

Runner-Up, Blended Learning: "Speexx," Speexx, Germany. Representative: Stephen Pryke.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Agile 101," Cardinal Health, USA. Representative: Ying Sixlin.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Bloomberg Market Concepts," Bloomberg Institute, USA.
Representative: Rob Langrick.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Managing Risk in Your Team," EmpowerTheUser, Ireland, with BNY Mellon. Representative: Declan Dagger

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Student Discipline," Optimism and New Zealand School Trustees Association, New Zealand. Representative: Nicola MacDonald.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "AKU 2015 - Knowledge Update for Financial Advisors," Contento Wassum Academy AB, Sweden. Representative: Niklas Andersson.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Mentor Training," Contento Wassum Academy AB, Sweden.
Representative: Niklas Andersson.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Communicate with Customers," Video Arts, United Kingdom.
Representative: Martin Addison.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Digital Learning Suite," MMG Limited & Savv-e, Australia. Representative: Thomas Woolfe.

Honorable Mention, E-learning: "Heineken Responsible Marketing Code e-learning," Realise, United Kingdom. Representative: Allan Burrell.

David Guralnick
President of IELA